SEX ON THE BEACH

£13.50

A famous story attributes its creation to a bartender named Ted who, in 1987 in Florida, concocted the drink to win a sales contest following the introduction of peach schnapps to the market. The idea was to create a drink embodying the quintessential Spring break motivations for many of Florida's visitors: the Beach and Sex.

However, this tale might be more myth than fact. A recipe including peach schnapps under the name Sex on the Beach appears in a publication by the American Bartenders School as early as 1982, suggesting the drink's invention could have predated the commonly told story by at least five years.

QUICK FACTS

A random but interesting fact about the Sex on the Beach cocktail is its variations and the creative names that some of these variations carry. For instance, a non-alcoholic version is sometimes called "safe sex on the beach", "cuddles on the beach", or "virgin(s) on the beach".

INGREDIENTS

50 ml Vodka

25 ml Peach Schnapps

50 ml Orange Juice
Freshly Squeezed

50 ml Cranberry Juice

01. Fill a glass with ice and add vodka, peach schnapps, and orange juice. Pour cranberry juice over
02. Garnish with an orange wedge to serve

GARNISH

Orange Wedge, Maraschino Cherry

EQUIPMENT & GLASSWARE

Sling Glass, Cocktail Spoon

MINT JULEP

£13.50

The Mint Julep, often associated with the Kentucky Derby, has a rich history that predates the iconic horse race. This classic cocktail has evolved from ancient origins to symbolise Southern hospitality and tradition. The term "julep" was first recorded in a Persian medical text around 900 CE, initially referring to a medicinal drink made from soaking violets with sugar in water. The concept of the julep travelled through the Middle East to the Mediterranean, where mint replaced rose petals as the primary ingredient due to their abundance and medicinal properties. By the time the julep reached America with early European settlers, it had transformed into a recreational beverage, combining locally available spirits with sweetened water and mint, served in silver stemware as a sign of high society.

QUICK FACTS

Margaret Mitchell, the author of Gone With The Wind, acknowledged the drink's iconic status in the South, incorporating it into her storytelling to evoke a sense of place and time. The drink's aroma alone was enough to captivate characters in her novel, suggesting a blend of whiskey and mint could be as alluring as any sophisticated perfume.

50 ml Bourbon
 10 ml Sugar Syrup
 12 Mint Leaves
 2 dsh Angostura Bitters

GARNISH

Mint leaves, Bitters

EQUIPMENT & GLASSWARE

Julep Cup, Muddler

01. In a Julep cup or rocks glass, lightly muddle the mint leaves in the syrup
02. Add the bourbon then pack the glass tightly with crushed ice Stir until the cup is frosted on the outside
03. Top with more, and garnish with a mint sprig and a few drops of bitters

STRAWBERRY DAIQUIRI

STRAWBERRY DAIQUIRI

£12.90

Daiquirí is the name of a beach on the southeastern shore of Cuba and an iron mine near Santiago de Cuba. The Daiquiri was supposedly invented by an American mining engineer named Jennings Cox, who was in Cuba during the Spanish-American War. William A. Chanler, a US congressman who purchased the Santiago iron mines in 1902, is rumoured to have introduced the Daiquiri to clubs in New York that year.

QUICK FACTS

July 19th is International Daiquiri Day; the drink was also a tipple of choice of author Ernest Hemingway.

INGREDIENTS

50 ml White Rum

25 ml Lime Juice

Freshly Squeezed

25 ml Sugar Syrup

5 Strawberries

GARNISH

Strawberry

EQUIPMENT & GLASSWARE

Blender, Coupe Glass

01. Add ice, rum, lime juice, sugar syrup and strawberries to a blender and blend
02. Pour the blended mixture into a chilled coupe glass
03. Garnish with a strawberry

BRAMBLE

£13.50

The Bramble was created in the mid-1980s by Dick Bradsell at Fred's Club in Soho, London. Created while working as the bar manager at Fred's Club, he planned to invent a genuinely British drink. The drink is said to take its name from the winding nature the liqueur takes when poured into the glass as though it were dodging through brambles.

QUICK FACTS

The original Bramble was garnished with raspberry as blackberries were not as available in the 1980s, according to the drink's inventor, Dick Bradsell.

INGREDIENTS

50 ml Gin
25 ml Crème de mure
30 ml Lemon Juice
Freshly Squeezed
15 ml Sugar Syrup

GARNISH

Blackberry, Lemon peel, Mint
Leaves

EQUIPMENT & GLASSWARE

01. Add ice to a cocktail shaker, then gin, lemon juice, and sugar syrup. Shake vigorously
02. Add crushed ice to a goblet
03. Strain into glass
04. Gently add Crème de mure
05. Garnish with blackberries and a lemon wedge

COSMOPOLITAN

£12.50

The Cosmopolitan's origins could be more precise, like many drinks on this list. While its origins are disputed, the most recognised creator of the Cosmo is Toby Cecchini of the Odeon in Manhattan, NYC.

QUICK FACTS

The Cosmopolitan gained significant popularity in the 1990s partly because of Sarah Jessica Parker's character, Carrie Bradshaw, in the hit television programme Sex and the City. The Cosmopolitan was the perfect accompaniment to Carrie's fashionista lifestyle.

The Sex and the City Movie (2008) ended with Carrie, Miranda, Charlotte, and Samantha questioning why they had ever stopped drinking them.

INGREDIENTS

30 ml Vodka
 30 ml Cointreau
 45 ml Cranberry Juice
 15 ml Lime Juice
Freshly Squeezed
 1 Dash Orange Bitters

GARNISH

Orange Peel

EQUIPMENT & GLASSWARE

Coupe Glass, Cocktail Shaker,
 Strainer

01. Add vodka, Cointreau, cranberry juice, and lime juice to a cocktail shaker, then add ice
02. Shake vigorously
03. Strain into a chilled coupe glass
04. Top with a dash of orange bitters
05. Garnish twisted orange peel

DARK AND STORMY

£12.90

The Dark and Stormy Cocktail has little to do with bad literary tropes and gothic language; the drink came to be in the Caribbean waters, where the rum is plentiful, as are sailors. Its exact history is hard to place, but legend goes that sometime after World War I, a sailor who, while enjoying the cocktail, commented that it was the "colour of a cloud-only a fool or a dead man would sail under".

QUICK FACTS

In the United States, "Dark' n' Stormy" has been a registered trademark of Gosling Brothers Ltd of Bermuda since 1991.

INGREDIENTS

50 ml Rum50 ml Ginger Beer30 ml Lime JuiceFreshly Squeezed*15 ml Sugar Syrup2 Dashes Angostura Bitters

GARNISH

Dehydrated Lime Wheel

EQUIPMENT & GLASSWARE

01. Add rum, lime juice, sugar syrup, and bitters to a cocktail shaker, then add ice. Shake vigorously
02. Add ice to a Collins glass
03. Strain the contents of the shaker into the glass
04. Top with ginger beer and gently stir with a bar spoon
05. Garnish with a dehydrated lime wheel

ESPRESSO MARTINI

ESPRESSO MARTINI

£13.50

The Espresso Martini was invented in 1983 by Dick Bradsell at the Soho Brasserie. The Espresso Martini started life when a customer asked for a drink to wake her up.

When asked why he settled on this particular mix of ingredients, he told Difford's Guide, "The coffee machine at the Soho Brasserie was right next to the station where I served drinks. It was a nightmare, as there were coffee grounds everywhere, so coffee was very much on my mind, and it was all about Vodka back then - it was all people drank".

QUICK FACTS

While the recipe has mainly stayed the same, the espresso martini was initially called the 'Vodka Espresso', and later a variation called the 'Pharmaceutical Stimulant' was created and served on-the-rocks at Pharmacy in Nottinghill, London

35 ml Vodka
 35 ml Kalúha
 35 ml Espresso
Freshly Brewed
 10 ml Sugar Syrup

GARNISH

Three Coffee Beans

EQUIPMENT & GLASSWARE

Cocktail shaker, Strainer, Coffee Maker of Choice, Martini Glass

01. Add vodka, Kahlúa, freshly made espresso, and sugar syrup to a cocktail shaker, then add ice.
02. Shake vigorously
03. Strain into a martini glass
04. Garnish with three coffee beans

FRENCH MARTINI

£13.50

Rumour has it that Chambord invented the French Martini as part of an elaborate marketing campaign. In reality, however, the drink emerged in the late 1980s in New York. Named for its use of the French liqueur and served in a martini glass. The French Martini is anything but a bonafide Martini. However, during the 1980s and 1990s cocktail explosion, almost any drink in a V-shaped glass became known as a martini.

QUICK FACTS

According to the company, Chambord's recipe comes from a raspberry liqueur made in the Loire Valley in the late 1600s, created from raspberries, blackberries, Madagascar vanilla, Moroccan citrus peel, honey, cognac and herbs and spices.

INGREDIENTS

50 ml Vodka
 25 ml Chambord
 45 ml Pineapple Juice

GARNISH

Edible Flower

EQUIPMENT & GLASSWARE

Cocktail Shaker, Strainer, Martini Glass

01. Add vodka, Chambord, pineapple juice, and sugar syrup to a cocktail shaker, then add ice.
02. Shake vigorously
03. Strain into a chilled martini glass
04. Garnish with an edible flower

PORN STAR MARTINI

PORN STAR MARTINI

£15.90

Douglas Ankrah of the Townhouse created the Porn Star Martini in Knightsbridge, London 2002. Despite the raunchy name of this cocktail, Ankrah maintains that there is nothing sexual about the drink. "The drink is very evocative and tantalising. I called it Pornstar because I thought it was something that a Pornstar would drink; there's nothing sexual there".

QUICK FACTS

The Porn Star Martini is served with a shot of champagne or prosecco on the side; according to Viper Mag, there are seven styles of drinking the cocktail. The Snap Drinker (takes a photo before drinking anything), The Shot Drinker (shoots the champagne/prosecco). The Savour Drinker (takes their time to enjoy the cocktail). The Sip Drinker (goes back and forth between the shot and cocktail). The Squeeze Drinker (squeezes the passion fruit into the cocktail). The Share Drinker (gives the shot away), and last but not least, The Sink Drinker (pours the shot into the cocktail).

INGREDIENTS

50 ml Vanilla Vodka

25 ml Passoa

30 ml Prosecco

15 ml Pineapple Juice

15ml Lime Juice

Freshly Squeezed

GARNISH

Half a Passion fruit

EQUIPMENT & GLASSWARE

Cocktail Shaker, Strainer, Martini Glass, Shot Glass

01. Cut passion fruits into halves
02. Scoop the seeds of 1 half of the passion fruits, then add to a shaker
03. Add vodka, Passoa, pineapple juice and lime juice to the shaker. Shake vigorously
04. Strain into a martini glass
05. Garnish with the remaining half of passion fruit and serve with a shot of prosecco on the side

MOJITO / PINEAPPLE MOJITO

£12.90/£13.50

Like many classic cocktails, the origin of the Mojito could be more precise; some have traced it back to 1586 as a medicinal drink named after Sir Francis Drake. We know that Bacardi saw the potential in this iconic cocktail and decided to use it for marketing their rum, and the two have been synonymous ever since.

QUICK FACTS

This Cuban drink was among the favourites of Ernest Hemingway, and it's believed that the cocktail was ordered by Hemingway regularly. The famous author once wrote on a bar wall, "My Mojito in La Bodeguita, My daiquiri in El Floridita." This famous epigraph is preserved in La Bodeguita del Medio, a typical bar in Havana, Cuba.

INGREDIENTS

50 ml Rum
Gold

60 ml Pineapple Juice
Freshly Squeezed

15 ml Lime Juice
Freshly Squeezed

15 ml Sugar Syrup
12 Mint Leaves

GARNISH

Lime, Mint Leaves

EQUIPMENT & GLASSWARE

Muddler, Bar Spoon, Collins Glass

01. Add mint leaves, rum, pineapple juice, lime juice, and sugar syrup to a Collins glass and top with crushed ice until two-thirds of the glass is full.
02. Stir with a bar spoon until well mixed. Top with more crushed ice until the glass is full. Stir again
03. Garnish with a few mint leaves

MAI TAI

£13.50

In 1934, Victor Jules Bergeron, or Trader Vic as he became known, opened his first restaurant in San Francisco. Legend has it that in 1944 he tested a new drink on two friends from Tahiti, Ham and Carrie Guild; after the first mouthful, Carrie allegedly proclaimed, "mai -tai-roa aé!" which means "out of this world!" in Tahitian.

QUICK FACTS

June 30th is National Mai Tai Day.

INGREDIENTS

40 ml Tiki Mix
 15 ml Cointreau
 20 ml Pineapple juice
 25 ml Lime Juice
Freshly Squeezed
 10 ml Orgeat Syrup
 10 ml Sugar Syrup

01. Add all ingredients to a shaker with ice and shake vigorously
02. Strain into a glass filled with crushed ice
03. Garnish with a mint leaf and a pineapple wedge

GARNISH

Mint Leaf, Pineapple Wedge,
 Dehydrated Lime Wheel

EQUIPMENT & GLASSWARE

Cocktail Shaker, Strainer, Hiball
 Glass

MARGARITA

£13.50

Part of the sour family, the Margarita takes its name from the Spanish word 'Daisy'; the daisy was a famous cocktail in the early 20th century.

Like many cocktails, many have claimed to have invented the Margarita; the Margarita may be a British creation by William J. Tarling, as his book The Café Royal Cocktail Book includes a recipe for a 'Picador' with proportions identical to what is known as the Margarita today.

QUICK FACTS

National Tequila Day is Wednesday, July 24th.

INGREDIENTS

35 ml Tequila

25 ml Cointreau

25 ml Lime Juice

Freshly squeezed

10 ml Sugar Syrup

GARNISH

Dehydrated Orange Wheel

EQUIPMENT & GLASSWARE

Cocktail Shaker, Strainer, Coupe Glass

01. Add ice to a cocktail shaker, tequila, limoncello, lime, and sugar syrup. Shake vigorously
02. Strain into a chilled coupe glass
03. Garnish with a dehydrated orange wheel

APEROL SPRITZ

APEROL SPRITZ

£13.50

The origin of the Aperol Spritz dates back to the early 1800s and the Napoleonic wars. After the wars, Austria-Hungary took ownership of the Veneto region of northern Italy, where Venice is.

For the next 50 years, Austrians took the local Italian wine and added a splash, or a "spritz" of water in German. Over time, the water turned to sparkling water, and the still wine morphed into wine fortified with a liqueur. The liqueur of choice quickly became Aperol.

QUICK FACTS

In 2003, Gruppo Campari bought the Aperol brand and used its global distribution to its advantage. It was only a short time until Aperol became the best-selling liquor in Italy.

INGREDIENTS

90 ml Prosecco

60 ml Aperol

60 ml Soda Water

GARNISH

Dehydrated Orange Wheel

EQUIPMENT & GLASSWARE

Vintage Cocktail Glass

01. Add ice to a glass, then add Aperol and prosecco.
02. Top with soda water
03. Garnish with a dehydrated orange slice

SOURS

£13.50

Up to the 20th century, refrigeration was lacking, and the concept of germs was mainly unknown. At this time, sea travel, especially from Europe to North America, took weeks, if not months. Food and water will spoil over a multi-month trip, and water was only somewhat considered safe. Sailors suffered from scurvy, malnutrition, and sea sicknesses until a bartender's hero named Vice Admiral Edward Vernon began mixing a few ingredients to serve to his crew. Sailors had a ration of things, like limes and lemons, to prevent scurvy and liquor for something safe to drink.

To avoid a shipful of intoxicated shipmates, the alcohol, usually rum, was watered down, and then lemon or lime juice was added to mask the flavour of the rum. The sailors then brought this concept to shore and, eventually, formed the basis of the sour cocktail we know today.

QUICK FACTS

The first written recipe for a sour date back to 1862 in Jerry Thomas's The Bartender's Guide.

INGREDIENTS

50 ml Bourbon, Amaretto or Tequila
30 ml Lemon Juice
Freshly squeezed
1 Egg White
15 ml Sugar Syrup
3 Dashes Angostura Bitters

GARNISH

Dehydrated Lime Wheel

EQUIPMENT & GLASSWARE

Cocktail Shaker, Strainer, Goblet

01. Add your choice of spirit to a shaker, then lemon juice, egg white, and sugar syrup. Shake vigorously to emulsify the egg white. Add ice, shake vigorously
02. Add ice to a goblet
03. Strain the contents of the shaker into the glass
04. Garnish with a dehydrated lime wheel and bitters

BELLINI

£15.90

The original Bellini was created by Giuseppe Cipriani at Harry's Bar, Venice, Italy, in 1945 and named after the 15th-century Venetian painter Giovanni Bellini; however, our version is much cheekier and more mischievous, just like our resident burlesque performer Miss Rita Peach.

QUICK FACTS

The Bellini's home, Harry's Bar, is said to have been often frequented by Ernest Hemingway, Scott Fitzgerald, Dorothy Parker, and Orson Wells, and it continues to be a celebrity haunt to this day.

INGREDIENTS

90 ml Prosecco

35 ml Peach Schnapps

25 ml Peach purée

10 ml Lemon juice

Freshly Squeezed

GARNISH

Freshly Peeled Lemon Peel Ribbon

EQUIPMENT & GLASSWARE

Cocktail Shaker, Champagne Flute

01. Add ice to a cocktail shaker, then add puréed peach and lemon juice. Shake vigorously
02. Strain contents into a champagne flute
03. Top with prosecco
04. Garnish with a freshly peeled lemon peel ribbon

1.5L Magnum of Prosecco
Perfect for large groups
or celebrations £90.00!

PERFECT FOR CELEBRATIONS!

Bottega Prosecco Gold Magnum 1.5L

90.00

Veneto, Italy. This lively and aromatic Prosecco DOC is made using 100% glare in the heart of the Hills of Valdobbiadene in Veneto, North-East Italy, the historical homeland of Prosecco.

The Hills of Valdobbiadene are close to the Venetian Prealps, the temperate climate of mild winters and fresh summers stimulates an increased production of aromatic compounds, resulting in finer and more intense aromas. The diversity of the soil, sun exposure and rolling hills make this Prosecco a hugely complex wine.

The grapes are organically cultivated and handpicked to ensure the highest of quality. Bottega sparkling wine is produced fresh to order with one single fermentation to protect the delicate aromas and freshness of the Glera grape.

Bottega Gold has luxurious aromas of apples, citrus fruits and white blossom.

An abundance of freshness on the palate, this prosecco combines the smoothness and elegance to allow for a delicate crispiness to reveal the magical characteristics of Bottega Gold.

Bottega Gold makes for a delightful aperitif and in cocktails, yet goes exceptionally well with starters, seafood, raw fish dishes, grilled white meats or stewed and fresh vegetable dishes

McConnell's 5-year-old is a fine blend of Irish malt and Irish grain whiskies which have been gently rested in select bourbon casks, bringing out beautiful overtones of vanilla sweetness, ripe fruits, butterscotch, and pepper spice, but how did it all begin?

The original home of this iconic brand was the Cromac Distillery, with warehousing situated at Dunbar Street in the heart of Belfast. The McConnell brothers, John and James, produced vast volumes of Irish whisky until they closed the distillery doors in 1930.

The brand had its share of troubles over its 150 years of production, with a warehouse fire at Dunbar Street and prohibition bringing that significant era to an end. However, today, McConnell's is thriving in the City of Belfast!

Belfast Distillery Company is building a state-of-the-art distillery and visitor centre so that McConnell's Irish Whisky will be alive and flourishing again in our great city. Play your part in restoring the legend!

SHERRY CASK FINISH
